Surface Coating Department

In March 2011, Surface Coating Department Workshop has started to build, and started to run in May 2012. The advanced equipment of Anodized Production Line, which are automatically line imported from abroad, effectively guarantee product quality and stability. Meanwhile, the safety sealing process and zero emissions made the products match with the food safety standard, and be environment friendly. The non-stick surface coating production line is fully equipped by automatic equipment, and with 60m long heating oven, which is the largest in China. The new workshop would improve the quality and supply capacity of San Neng Products.
